

Dr. Marek Miłosz – Ph.D. (Eng.) is a Deputy Dean of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science Faculty, Deputy Director of Institute of Computer Science, and Head of Department of Software Engineering and Database Systems at Lublin University of Technology (LUT).

Dr. M.Miłosz has graduated (both: M.Sc. and Ph.D.) from Moscow State University of Civil Engineering, Moscow, Russia. He is a lecturer and an expert in software engineering, database management, business process modeling, management information systems building and developing, IT solutions developing in e-business, project management. He was a project manager in many research projects on computer science field. He has very rich experience in practical usage of software engineering and project management. For 10 years he had been working as a project management trainer for IBM. He is active participant of many European projects as a coordinator of activities taken by LUT. He was supervisor app. 220 M.Sc., and 2 Ph.D. thesis, most of them in software engineering field. He is an author or co-author 45 books and app. 380 scientific paper and conference proceeding presentations in computer science. He is also a Member of Polish Information Processing Society and a Vice-President of European Computer Competence Certificate (ECCC) Foundation – the organization created European ITC certification programme.